

CALLING ALL YOUTH WHO:

- Are 16-24 years of age
- Want to take action on health issues affecting Toronto youth
- Are interested in tobacco use prevention
- Want to gain leadership and employable skills
- Can commit to a minimum of 12 hours monthly

Toronto Public Health's Youth Health Action Network (YHAN) is for Toronto youth between the ages of 16-24 years. Youth are involved in planning, coordinating, and taking action on current and emerging health issues affecting youth within the City of Toronto. Tobacco use prevention work is a priority. Additional topics of focus could include: physical activity, sport and recreation; injury prevention; healthy eating; substance misuse; mental health; and other health-related issues.

Deadline to apply is: Friday, October 19, 2012.

To register online visit:

<https://wx.toronto.ca/inter/tph/yhanreg.nsf/reg?OpenForm>

For more information please contact:

Jessica Saunders
Youth Engagement Coordinator
Toronto Public Health
jsaunde4@toronto.ca
416-338-0003

